Information for the exhibition of hazardous substances and mixtures at trade fair stands

Hazardous substances and mixtures must be duly labeled when they are placed on the market. Selling hazardous substances and mixtures directly at a trade fair is defined as placing on the market. In this case, labelling duly in accordance with the CLP regulation (Regulation (EC) No. 1272/2008) is mandatory.

Hazardous substances and mixtures which are only exhibited at the fair trade are not placed on the market. If this substance has not yet been properly labelled at the exhibition, the exhibitor must clearly indicate that it does not comply with the requirements and cannot be acquired unless compliance is reached (§ 3 Abs. 5 ProdSG). This requirement can be met by displaying an information label in German language - additional languages are possible.

Example of an information label:
